

I feel strongly that the Wisconsin "no call" law should be left as is. Many of us have health concerns that make it difficult to answer those repeated and annoying calls. This law has been very helpful and I do not want it changed.